I would make the language relate to any changes that the Department is planning to propose to administrative rules or any change to dates impacting choice schools or pupils (e.g., for filing financial information). Hope this helps.

Thanks Tracy.

Hi Bob –

Can you provide any further details about the types of "administrative changes" that would warrant notice ("administrative changes" seems vague and perhaps overly broad)? Are these changes at the legislative level or at the rule-making level? What if the changes relate only to how DPI interacts with the private schools themselves; must the parents be informed of these changes? And must the notice be in writing?

On your question about interest rates on back pay, I couldn't find anything that related to back pay or interest on back pay. Is this a provision in an administrative rule?
